It is said, "Reading is to the mind what exercise is to the body". Books give us not only pleasure but also education and knowledge. Books are our everlasting friends. Different kinds of books give us different types of pleasure. There are numerous books to please and satisfy different readers. There are many informative books on history, biography, philosophy, religion, travel, and science which we ought to read. But today many people say that modern life is so fast and full of actions that they do not have time and desire to read books. They consider reading to be nothing more than waste of time. Furthermore, people say that modern technologies like computers can replace traditional books. There are people, who receive pleasure from reading books and believe that books will never disappear from their lives. They feel certain that books teach us what is right and what is wrong; they enrich the inner world of a reader and certainly entertain him. Nevertheless, reading is a trend that is slowly diminishing. More and more people prefer to watch TV or surf on the internet instead of reading. Though mainly reading is the best way to make your brain work. We can say that books are a veritable treasure: You can never be lonely in the company of a good book. The deeper you delve into it, the more you are drawn to it. Reading is a nice means to relax and de-stress after a hard day.
