Q.2 passage [—] The Gender inequality is more conspicuously manifested when it comes to schooling, particularly education at higher level. Cultural boundaries and various gender roles lead to different approaches towards male and female education. In Pakistan, for example, a family may consider it useless to impart education to girls because they are supposed to get married eventually and to take on their major responsibilities of house making and babysitting. Majority of rural girls drop out of primary school. According to the ministry of women development report 2007, only 5% of women have attained the Bachelor degree and only 1.4% have achieved a Master degree. Likewise the World Economic Forum report 2020 states that while the majority of countries have bridged or nearly bridged the educational gender gap, Pakistan still stands at 20%. It further says about Pakistan, "Less than half of women are literate, compared with 71% of men". Poor or irrelevant academics of women along with some other factors like marriage and cultural stereotypes lead to their joblessness and economic backwardness. Mostly across the globe, women can't find equal work opportunities and, so, remain economically dependent on men. They are barred from owning land and their control over household economic resources is also limited. Women, therefore are more likely to be living at or below the poverty line. As regards Pakistan, only one-quarter of women participate in the labour force i.e. working or looking to work compared with 85% of men. In this connection, WEF 2020 report says, "Only 5% of senior and leadership roles are held by women, twice the rate of 2016. It is estimated that only 18% of Pakistan's labour income goes to women, one of the lowest share among the countries studied". Pakistan has to improve upon this alarming situation as soon as possible because raising women's participation in the workforce and advancing their financial empowerment is the key to boosting economic growth and sustainable development in the country. (Bold/ underlined words in the source scan: manifested, impart, bridged, stereotypes, barred, empowerment.) QUESTIONS: (i) Write down summary of the passage and suggest a suitable title. (7+1=08) (ii) What has been described as the most obvious manifestation of gender inequality? OR Why may a family consider it useless to impart education to girls? (iii) What do you think is the reason behind the drop out of a vast majority of girls at primary level in the rural areas? (iv) How are we far behind other countries in our efforts to bridge the gender gap in the education sector? OR What are some of the factors that lead to joblessness of women? (v) How is the contribution of women in the labour force very poor in Pakistan? (vi) Do you agree with the writer that the financial empowerment of women is the key to boost a sustainable development in the country? Elaborate your answer. OR Use the words that are bold and underlined in sentences of your own. (Any four)

Note: Question No. (i) about summary carries 08 marks while the rest of the questions carry 04 marks each. (8+5 x 4 = 28). The source scan prints Arabic honorifics after the names of the Prophet (PBUH) and the Sahaba; these are retyped here in standard English form.

Q.2 passage [—] The Rasool (PBUH) had given the banner of Islam to Massab ibn Umayer (R.A). He was martyred by the enemy and the banner of Islam fell on the ground. Nevertheless, Hazrat Ali (R.A) seized the sacred banner and bore it aloft amidst the storm of battle. As Massab (R.A) resembled the Rasool (PBUH) in person, a shout was put up by the enemy that Hazrat Muhammad (PBUH) God forbid, was martyred. The morale of the polytheists of Makkah was beefed up by this shout but it demoralized the Muslim Army. The beloved Rasool (PBUH) was fighting in the other part of the battlefield, was wounded, and his head and holy face were bleeding. A few Muslims mainly the Ansar were defending him. It was this little group and its battle cries that caught Ali's (R.A) attention. He tore his way through enemy lines and came up to his comrade-in-arm. They stood surrounding the Rasool (PBUH) led by Abu Dujana (R.A). They were doing their best to shield him from the weapons of the enemy. He was thrilled to see his master alive. The idolaters renewed their attacks, charged repeatedly but the strong defense of Hazrat Ali (R.A) repulsed them each time. Hazrat Ali (R.A) and other Sahabas, therefore prevented the non-believers to take advantage of the victory and averted destruction. The battle that would have otherwise ended in annihilation of Muslims, ended in a draw. The price of disregarding the commands of the Holy Rasool (PBUH) and negligence of the duty and responsibility by the band of the archers was paid by Muslims with seventy martyrs, stress, woes and grief. This incident is an invaluable lesson for the Muslims, never to disobey the Holy Rasool (PBUH) in their lives. (Bold/underlined words in the source scan: seized, polytheists, beefed up, demoralized, annihilation.) QUESTIONS: (i) Write down summary of the passage and suggest a suitable title. (v) What lesson do you
